CODE OF CONDUCT FOR COACHES

1. Coaches must respect the rights, dignity and worth of each and every person and treat each equally within the context of sport.
2. Coaches must place the well-being and safety of each player above all other considerations including the development of performance
3. Coaches must adhere to all guidelines laid down by governing bodies
4. Coaches must develop an appropriate working relationship with each player based on mutual trust and respect
5. Coaches must not exert undue influence to obtain personal benefit or reward
6. Coaches must encourage and guide players to accept responsibility for their own behavior and performance
7. Coaches must ensure that the activities they direct or advocate are age appropriate, maturity, experience and ability of players
8. Coaches should, at the outset, clarify with the players (and where appropriate parents) exactly what is expected of them and also what they as players are entitled to expect from their coach
9. Coaches must co-operate fully with other specialists in best interests of the player
10. Coaches must always promote the positive aspects of sport and never condone violations of the Laws of the Game, behavior contrary to the spirit of the Laws of the Game or relevant rules and regulations or the use of prohibited substances or techniques
11. Coaches must consistently display high standards of behavior and appearance
12. Not to use or tolerate inappropriate language
